

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Organizing and Scientific Committee of the ICI Meeting 2016, we would like to inform about this upcoming event, and to approach you for the cooperation.

ICI Meeting 2016 – the premier International Conference for Innovations in Cardiovascular Systems (Heart, Brain and Peripheral Vessels) and High-Tech Life Science Industry will be taking place on December 4-6 2016 in Tel Aviv, Israel. Congress website is: <http://2016.icimeeting.com/>

Please kindly advise if it would be possible for you to post ICI Meeting 2016 website link and the banner (attached) on your website and social media pages, and if possible, to send information about ICI Meeting 2016 to your members and colleagues?

In return, we would be happy to place your association's or journal's website and logo on the ICI Meeting website as well. We would also be able to put on our website a banner and weblink of any of your future events, or have your brochures displayed during the ICI Meeting in Tel Aviv.

Please kindly advise whether such cooperation might be possible for you? Thank you a lot in advance, and much looking forward to hearing from you.

With best regards,

Elena
